REPORT TO THE CONGRESS

U.S. Government Non-Tax
Receivables and Debt Collection
Activities of Federal Agencies

Department of the Treasury
July 2020

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON, DC

OFFICE OF THE FISCAL ASSISTANT SECRETARY

A MESSAGE FROM THE FISCAL ASSISTANT SECRETARY

I am pleased to present the Fiscal Year 2019 Report to the Congress on United States Government Non-tax Receivables and Debt Collection Activities of Federal Agencies. This annual report provides important information to the American public on the status and collection of the Federal government's non-tax receivables (current and delinquent).

At the end of Fiscal Year (FY) 2019, the outstanding amount of non-tax receivables owed to the United States was $1.7 trillion. These receivables included loans to students, small business owners, homeowners, farmers, and veterans. They also included administrative non-tax receivables, including fines and penalties, overpayments, and fees.

Most citizens pay their debts on time. However, at the end of FY 2019, delinquent non-tax debt owed to the Federal government totaled $219.7 billion, an increase of $16.7 billion (8 percent) from FY 2018. The collection of delinquent debts helps fund government operations, maintain key programs, and reduce the Federal deficit. Thus, it is very important to continue to find ways to cost-effectively collect the delinquent debt owed to the government while, at the same time, providing debtors with due process and the opportunity to repay debt in accordance with their financial ability to pay.

Federal agencies face many challenges collecting and resolving delinquent debts. Despite these challenges, in FY 2019, Federal creditor agencies collected $27.0 billion of delinquent non-tax debt. The Department of the Treasury, Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service) collected $6.3 billion in delinquent Federal non-tax debt on behalf of Federal agencies through its delinquent debt collection programs. Additionally, Fiscal Service collected $3.4 billion in delinquent tax debt on behalf of the Internal Revenue Service and delinquent tax and non-tax debts on behalf of the State agencies through its Treasury Offset Program. Fiscal Service continues to collaborate with Federal and State agencies to maximize collections and resolve those debts for which collection is not possible because of a debtor's circumstances.

Information about the Federal government's management of receivables is available at transparency.treasury.gov. This website provides the public with easy-to-understand data about the Federal government's finances.

I. Introduction

The Secretary of the Treasury (Secretary) reports to Congress annually on the Federal government's non-tax receivables and debt collection activities. As required by Federal law, this report includes information that Federal creditor agencies provide to the Secretary on the status of their accounts receivable, as reported in the Treasury Report on Receivables and Debt Collection Activities (TROR).<sup>1</sup> Information about the Federal government's management of receivables is available to the public at transparency.treasury.gov.

Based on policies from Congress and the President, Federal creditor agencies make loans to borrowers, guarantee loans made by private lending institutions, and impose fines and penalties. These activities result in the creation of accounts receivable as assets of the government. In addition, Federal creditor agencies award grants, make payments, and provide other services, which, in certain circumstances, can also result in the creation of accounts receivable.

At the end of FY 2019, the government's outstanding non-tax receivables totaled $1.7 trillion, an increase of $106.6 billion (7 percent) from FY 2018. A receivable is current when it is not yet due or is being repaid as agreed. When the government's receivables are not paid by the due date, they generally become delinquent debt. At the end of FY 2019, delinquent non-tax debt owed to the United States totaled $219.7 billion, an increase of $16.7 billion (8 percent) from FY 2018.

Each Federal creditor agency is required to make every reasonable effort to collect its receivables. At the end of FY 2019, collections on Federal non-tax receivables totaled $339.7 billion, an increase of $1.9 billion (0.6 percent).<sup>2</sup> The Fiscal Service and the Department of Justice (DOJ) share the responsibility for setting government-wide policy on non-tax debt collection, and each plays a major role in the centralized collection of delinquent non-tax debt. In FY 2019, Federal creditor agencies collected $27.0 billion of delinquent non-tax debt, a decrease of $0.9 billion (3 percent) from FY 2018.

This report provides summary data on the value of receivables owed to the Federal government, the portion of those receivables that are delinquent, and efforts to collect or write-off delinquent debt. The report provides comparative information from previous fiscal years to FY 2019, and information on specific aspects of government-wide non-tax receivables and debt collection activities.

Note: Delinquencies and collections result from various events and conditions that can occur over multiple reporting periods. Depending on the structure of repayment terms, for example, the date that a receivable is due may be in the same fiscal year that it is recorded or it may be due in a future fiscal year. Similarly, collections during FY 2019 may be associated with non-tax debt that became delinquent either in FY 2019 or in a prior year, and are most often associated with receivables that were recorded in a prior fiscal year. Therefore, use caution when comparing annual totals and year-over-year changes of receivables, delinquencies, and collections. Dollar figures in this report have been rounded to the tenth decimal point. Percentage changes are calculated based on the rounded dollar figures.

II. Federal Non-Tax Receivables Owed to the United States

A. Total Federal Non-Tax Receivables

Federal non-tax receivables are amounts owed to the Federal government by a person (including individuals, organizations, and other entities). Receivables are categorized as being either current or delinquent. Delinquent receivables are also referred to as delinquent debt.

At the end of FY 2019, total Federal non-tax receivables owed to the United States totaled $1.7 trillion, an increase of $106.6 billion (7 percent) from FY 2018. The total outstanding receivable balance at the end of a fiscal year is the net of receivables that remained unpaid from prior fiscal years and new receivables recorded during that fiscal year, less collections, adjustments, and amounts written off and closed out.

New Federal non-tax receivables recorded as of the end of FY 2019 totaled $409.7 billion, an increase of $14.6 billion (4 percent) from FY 2018. Collection of Federal non-tax receivables in FY 2019 was $339.7 billion, an increase of $1.9 billion (0.6 percent) from FY 2018.

B. By Creditor Agency

Receivables owed to the Department of Education (Education)<sup>3</sup> and the Department of Agriculture (USDA) at the end of FY 2019 accounted for $1.5 trillion (86 percent) of the government's total outstanding Federal non-tax receivables.

C. By Receivable Type

Of the $1.7 trillion in Federal non-tax receivables outstanding (both current and delinquent) in FY 2019, Federal loan receivables (direct loans and defaulted guaranteed loans) represented $1.6 trillion (94 percent) of total outstanding receivables. Receivables attributable to direct loans and defaulted guaranteed loans increased by $104.7 billion (7 percent) from FY 2018 to FY 2019. Administrative receivables (all non-loan receivables)<sup>7</sup> represented $107.9 billion of the total outstanding receivables at the end of FY 2019, an increase of $1.9 billion (2 percent) from FY 2018.

D. Interest, Penalties, and Administrative Costs

Generally, Federal creditor agencies assess interest on outstanding loan receivables. Federal creditor agencies are also generally required to assess interest, penalties, and administrative costs when receivables become delinquent.<sup>8</sup> Of the $1.7 trillion in outstanding current and delinquent receivables at the end of FY 2019, $123.6 billion (7 percent) represented unpaid interest, penalties, and administrative costs.

III. Delinquent Federal Non-Tax Debt Owed to the United States

A. Total Delinquent Federal Non-Tax Debt

A non-tax debt is considered delinquent if it has not been paid by the date specified in an agency’s initial written demand for payment or applicable agreement. A non-tax debt may become delinquent during the same fiscal year that it was recorded as a receivable or during a subsequent fiscal year.

At the end of FY 2019, outstanding delinquent non-tax debt owed to the United States totaled $219.7 billion, an increase of $16.7 billion (8 percent) from FY 2018. The total outstanding delinquent debt balance at the end of a fiscal year is the net of debt that remained delinquent from previous fiscal years and debt that became delinquent during that fiscal year, less collections, adjustments, and amounts written off.

B. By Age

Of the total $219.7 billion of outstanding delinquent Federal non-tax debt at the end of FY 2019, $148.3 billion (68 percent) was more than two years delinquent and $71.4 billion was less than two years delinquent.

Federal creditor agencies utilize a combination of debt collection tools. Among these collection tools are administrative wage garnishment (AWG), use of private collection agencies (PCAs), offset of Federal and State<sup>12</sup> payments through the Treasury Offset Program (TOP), use of Fiscal Service's Cross-Servicing Program, and litigation. Before using most collection tools, Federal creditor agencies must first provide debtors with due process. This includes providing notice and an opportunity to enter into a repayment agreement based on the debtor's financial circumstances, dispute the debt, or object to the intended collection action.

1. Administrative Wage Garnishment

Federal law authorizes Federal creditor agencies to garnish a delinquent debtor's wages without obtaining a court order by ordering a non-Federal employer to withhold up to 15 percent of an employee's disposable income to collect a delinquent Federal non-tax debt owed to the agency. AWG serves as an effective tool in collecting delinquent non-tax debt from those debtors who are able but unwilling to voluntarily pay their obligations. In FY 2019, Federal creditor agencies collected $1.5 billion through the use of AWG, an increase of $167.1 million (13 percent) from FY 2018.<sup>13</sup>

2. Private Collection Agencies

PCAs assist Federal creditor agencies in many ways, including locating debtors, establishing repayment agreements, and resolving debt administratively when a debtor is deceased, unable to pay, bankrupt, or out of business. In FY 2019, PCAs assisted Federal creditor agencies by collecting $452.8 million, an increase of approximately $9.8 million (2 percent) from FY 2018.<sup>15</sup>

C. Centralized Government-Wide Debt Collection Programs

Generally, Federal creditor agencies are required to refer delinquent Federal non-tax debt to Fiscal Service for collection through its delinquent debt collection programs, known as the Cross-Servicing Program and TOP. Federal creditor agencies generally are required to refer debts at no later than 120 days delinquent to the Cross-Servicing Program and TOP. Before referring a debt to Fiscal Service for collection, Federal creditor agencies must provide debtors with notice and an opportunity to enter into a repayment agreement based on the debtor's financial circumstances, dispute the debt, or object to the intended collection action. While Federal creditor agencies are responsible for providing this required due process, Fiscal Service also provides debtors with additional opportunities to resolve their debts prior to the initiation of adverse collection action. For example, prior to initiating a collection action, the Cross-Servicing Program sends a demand letter to each debtor, and TOP sends a warning letter to payees before offsetting recurring payments.

1. Treasury's Cross-Servicing Program Collections

Treasury's Cross-Servicing Program collects delinquent non-tax debts through various means. Fiscal Service services the delinquent non-tax debts on behalf of Federal creditor agencies by contacting debtors through demand letters and telephone calls, negotiating payment agreements, submitting delinquent debt to TOP, referring delinquent debt to PCAs, referring delinquent debt to DOJ for litigation, reporting debt to credit bureaus, and initiating AWG. In FY 2019, Fiscal Service collected $603.1 million of delinquent Federal non-tax debt through its Cross-Servicing Program, which includes debt collected through TOP, an increase of $154.3 million (34 percent)<sup>18</sup> from FY 2018.

2. Treasury Offset Program Collections

For non-tax debt submitted to TOP, Fiscal Service intercepts eligible Federal and State payments and applies them to a payee's delinquent non-tax debt. Eligible payments include Federal tax refunds; Federal non-tax payments (e.g., Social Security benefits, civil service and military retirement, salary, vendor); State tax refunds; and other payments made by the States participating in TOP's State Reciprocal Program.<sup>19</sup> For more information about collections through TOP, see Appendix IV. For more information about the types of payments for which exemptions from centralized administrative offset have been approved, see Appendix VI.

In FY 2019, Fiscal Service collected $9.3 billion through TOP for Federal and State agencies. Of the $9.3 billion collected, $5.9 billion was from debtors who owed delinquent Federal non-tax debt, $801.5 million was from debtors who owed delinquent Federal tax debt, and $2.6 billion was from debtors who owed State debts, including delinquent child support obligations. Figure 17 shows a breakdown of TOP offsets by payment type for the collection of Federal non-tax debt.

3. Enforced Collection by the Department of Justice

In FY 2019, DOJ collected a total of $9.9 billion on behalf of Federal creditor agencies, a decrease of $3.6 billion (27 percent) from FY 2018. When a Federal creditor agency cannot collect a non-tax debt administratively, or believes that enforced collection action is otherwise more appropriate, the agency may refer the debt to DOJ to pursue enforced collection<sup>20</sup> through the judicial process.

4. Department of Health and Human Services' Program Support Center

HHS's Program Support Center (PSC) is a Treasury-designated debt collection center that collects non-tax debt for Federal creditor bureaus within HHS and several Federal creditor agencies outside of HHS. In addition, the PSC serves as the HHS conduit for referrals to Fiscal Service for both TOP and the Cross-Servicing Program. In FY 2019, the PSC collected $397.0 million, a decrease of $33.0 million (8 percent) from FY 2018.

V. Write-Offs of Delinquent Federal Non-Tax Debt

Federal creditor agencies are generally required to write off non-tax debt that is two years delinquent (see Office of Management and Budget Circular A-129).<sup>21</sup> By writing off delinquent Federal non-tax debt as uncollectible, Federal creditor agencies more accurately reflect the value of their receivables on the books of the United States. Certain write-offs are categorized as “currently not collectible” (CNC), which means that collection efforts continue until the agency determines it should terminate those efforts.

Other write-offs are categorized as “closed out,” which means that a Federal creditor agency has terminated all debt collection action. Consequently, a Federal creditor agency may be required to report such write-offs to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as potential income to the debtor.

In FY 2019, Federal non-tax debt that was written off and categorized as “closed out” totaled $10.2 billion, an increase of $1.5 billion (17 percent) from FY 2018. The Federal creditor agencies with the largest write-off amounts in FY 2019 include Education ($7.9 billion), USDA ($612.6 million), and SSA ($390.0 million).

Appendix IV: TOP Collections Including Debts Owed to the Internal Revenue Service and State Agencies

TOP is the centralized process through which Federal and State disbursing agencies intercept, or “offset,” eligible Federal and State payments to satisfy delinquent debts owed to Federal and State agencies. Delinquent debts owed to Federal agencies include loans, overpayments, fines, penalties, and more. In addition, the Federal Payment Levy Program, processed through TOP, allows the IRS to continuously levy Federal payments due to delinquent Federal taxpayers.<sup>22</sup> Delinquent debts owed to State agencies include child support and unemployment insurance obligations.

In FY 2019, Fiscal Service collected $9.3 billion through TOP for Federal and State agencies, of which $6.7 billion was for debts owed to Federal agencies and $2.6 billion for debts owed to State agencies. Highlights include:

- $1.7 billion was collected for delinquent child support obligations submitted to TOP by HHS’s Office of Child Support Enforcement on behalf of States.
- $532.3 million was collected for the 41 States and the District of Columbia that participated in TOP’s State Income Tax Program, whereby Federal tax refunds and Federal vendor payments are offset to collect delinquent State income tax obligations.
- $273.4 million was collected for the 49 States and the District of Columbia that participated TOP’s Unemployment Insurance Compensation (UIC) Program, whereby Federal tax refunds and Federal vendor payments are offset to collect delinquent unemployment insurance benefit and employer tax obligations.
- $54.6 million was collected for the 11 States and the District of Columbia that participated in TOP’s State Reciprocal Program for other state debts, whereby eligible Federal vendor payments are offset to collect debt owed to States. In return, States offset $103.3 million from State payments to collect delinquent Federal non-tax debts.
- TOP collected $801.5 million of delinquent Federal taxes through the Federal Payment Levy Program.

Appendix V: Compliance with 120-Day Delinquent Debt Referral Requirement

The Digital Accountability and Transparency Act of 2014 (DATA Act) requires Federal agencies to notify Treasury of legally enforceable, non-tax debts that are greater than 120 days delinquent for purposes of administrative offset.<sup>24</sup> The DATA Act also requires Treasury to report to Congress when debts are not referred timely.

The figure below shows the extent to which each Federal agency satisfied this referral requirement in FY 2019. The figure only includes agencies that had eligible debts to refer to Fiscal Service. Agencies that did not have eligible debts to refer are not listed.

The data used in this figure, as with the data for much of this Report, are based on data that agencies reported on the TROR at the close of FY 2019. When agencies report information on the TROR, they certify to its accuracy.

Appendix VI: Payments Exempted from Centralized Administrative Offset by the Secretary of the Treasury

As authorized by Federal law, 31 U.S.C. § 3716(c)(3)(B), the Secretary of the Treasury, at the request of a paying agency, may exempt certain classes of Federal payments from the requirement that they be offset for the purpose of collecting non-tax debt owed to the United States. *A complete list of payment classes exempt from centralized administrative offset is available on Treasury's website.*

Endnotes

<sup>1</sup> This report is provided in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 3719(b) (requiring the Secretary to report annually to Congress on the status of loans and accounts receivables managed by Federal agencies during the previous year) and fulfils other reporting requirements under 31 U.S.C. § 3716(c)(3)(B) (requiring the Secretary to report annually to Congress regarding payments exempted from offset) and 31 U.S.C. § 3716(c)(6)(B) (requiring the Secretary to report to Congress on agency failure to refer debts for administrative offset). Although this report incorporates some information about Federal tax and state debt collections, information on the management and collection of Federal tax receivables and state debts is generally outside the scope of this report.

<sup>2</sup> Collections on receivables includes loan consolidations from the Department of Education. A loan consolidation is the process of combining one or more eligible loans into a single new loan.

<sup>4</sup> All year-over-year changes are calculated based on the exact value in whole dollars and may differ from the change calculated based on the rounded values expressed in millions or billions of dollars.

<sup>5</sup> HUD receivables grew by 23.8% due to an $11.3B increase in its Federal Housing Administration loan programs.

<sup>8</sup> The rate of interest is generally governed by 31 U.S.C. § 3717 and published by the Department of the Treasury.

<sup>9</sup> The calculation of the amount that became delinquent during FY 2019 is based on debt that was between 1 and 365 days delinquent as of September 30, 2019.

<sup>10</sup> The delinquent debts are associated with loans to foreign countries for the purchase of defense articles and services.

<sup>11</sup> Department of Veteran Affairs delinquent collections grew by 50.0% due to a $445M increase in its Veteran Benefits and Medical and Construction programs.

<sup>12</sup> The term "State" includes the several states of the United States, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Guam, the United States Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

<sup>13</sup> This amount does not include collections resulting from the use of AWG by Fiscal Service's Cross-Servicing Program or from judicial garnishment actions.

<sup>14</sup> Education's Office of Federal Student Aid revised a segment of its reporting process, which led to the increase in its AWG and PCA collections.

<sup>15</sup> This amount does not include collections resulting from the use of PCAs by Fiscal Service's Cross-Servicing Program or from the use of private counsel by DOJ. This amount also does not include collections from AWG.

<sup>16</sup> The decrease in PCA collections is a result of a change to Education's delinquent debt aging methodology for its Federal Student Aid (student loan) programs.

Endnotes

<sup>17</sup> The increase in Federal Student Aid's PCA collections is primarily due to 1) a general increase in PCA collections and 2) a correction to the aging methodology implemented by its default servicer. Federal Student Aid's default servicer implemented the revised aging methodology in December 2018 but had to make additional system changes during July 2018 to correctly apply the revised aging methodology.

<sup>18</sup> The increase in Cross-Servicing collections was in large part due to offset collections for Veterans Health Administration (VHA) increasing from $38 million to $126 million from FY2018 to FY2019. This was a direct result of increased VHA referrals to Cross-Servicing.

<sup>19</sup> Generally, one-time payments (tax refunds and vendor payments) may be offset up to 100 percent of the payment amount. For recurring payments (Social Security, retirement, and salary), the offset amount is generally limited to a percentage of the payment.

<sup>20</sup> An "enforced" collection action refers to an action taken by DOJ (or by another Federal creditor agency with independent litigation authority) to obtain a judgment against the debtor and to pursue available post-judgment remedies (including wage and bank garnishment and liens filed against property).

<sup>21</sup> "Write-off" of a delinquent debt is an accounting action. Federal creditor agencies may pursue collection of a delinquent Federal non-tax debt, however, without regard to whether it has been written off.

<sup>22</sup> "Levy" is legally distinct from "offset." While offset involves the netting out of mutual obligations between two parties, a levy is a legal seizure of property, usually in the hands of a third party, to satisfy a tax debt.
